Mini Brick Road Table Runner—Ever heard of the “Yellow Brick Road” quilt pattern by Terry Atkinson? Welcome to her baby sister – Mini Brick Road! Think table runner, placemats or even a doll quilt for a quick and easy Christmas gift. This goes together very fast and easy. Add a couple fat quarters, fat eighths or scraps and you have enough for any project. The pattern makes 2 placemats but you can easily double that for a set of 4! The sample is a shorten version of the table runner. We will be using the pattern called “Mini Brick Road” by Terry Atkinson (purchase required at JSS).

Tuesday, September 20—10:30-3:30 pm
Class Fee: $30 Pattern: $10

Witches Night Out Table Runner—Need a fall or Halloween table runner to add to your décor? The sample finishes 16” x 42” but you can make yours whatever size you want depending on the pumpkins you use! Practice your HST’s or just sew straight strips for the small pumpkins. Add a witch’s hat (like the sample) or a cauldron! We will be using the pattern called “Witch’s Night Out” by It’s Sew Emma (purchase required at JSS) – yes it is a quilt pattern but it can easily be adapted to a table runner or even placemats!
