Statement on Override of Gov. Stein's Veto of S. 254

Raleigh, NC – Dave Machado, executive director of the North Carolina Coalition for Charter Schools, said the following regarding the House and Senate's successful vote to override Gov. Josh Stein's veto of Senate Bill 254:

"On behalf of more than 150,000 students who rely on a public charter school for their education, thank you to the 74 members of the House of Representatives and 30 members of the Senate who voted to override Gov. Josh Stein's veto of Senate Bill 254.

"Public charter schools succeed because of their flexibility and autonomy. Senate Bill 254 protects that flexibility and autonomy by empowering a body of charter school experts, insulated from political maneuverings, at the front line of regulation and oversight."
