

The Daily Doyle Week of 9/1

Notes from Miss Doyle

Double check with your child on their library account. Some have overdue fees and will not be able to check out any books until those are taken care of.

What's going on?

Reading: We finished our novel Freckle Juice! Next week we will read from our textbook a story called The Many Lives of Benjamin Franklin! The quiz over the story and vocab will be on Thursday, September 7th.

Math: We are finishing our chapter over addition and subtraction strategies. Our test over this will be next Thursday, September 7th.

Science: We are finishing up our chapter on different parts of the plant and their functions! We will do some review in class and then our test over this will be next Friday September 8th. It will be open note so students can use their study guide we did in class and their textbook!

Social Studies: Next week we will begin talking about the different regions of the United States. We will learn there are five different regions that make up the US!

Religion: Next week we will talk about how we are God's holy people and how He calls us to be holy.
