

PRE-K NEWS

Mrs. Cuniffe's Classroom News!

January 19th- 23rd

This Week

Letter P week was a blast! The kids had so much fun cooking pancakes in our cozy PJ's.

We also had a great time playing with Paw Patrol, penguins, My Little Ponies, Polly Pocket, princesses, pennies, play dough, pizza, and so much more!!

Next week letter Q! We will also be exploring some nursery rhymes.

If you have not sign up for parent teachers conferenced on Thursday, the 29th please do so.

Our time outside is becoming hit or miss.

Remember we will go outside most days.

Please make sure your child has a coat, hat, and gloves daily.

Highlights for the week

Monday- NO SCHOOL-MLK day

Tuesday- we read How I Became a Pirate, made a pirate head, colored the pictures that started with P, played with the pirate ships.

Wednesday- we read If you give a pig a pancake, made a peacock, mixed, cooked, and ate pancakes, played with penguins and oatmeal in the sensory table, explored Peppa Pig.

Thursday- we read Tacky the Penguin, painted at the easel, went on a letter P hunt, read about penguins in our Let's find out, explored penguins in "snow".

Friday- we read Pete the Cat's Pizza Party, made a paper plate pizza, practiced writing the letter P, talked about prayer and went over our P book, visited our 3rd grade buddies
