KEYNOTE SPEAKER

CONNIE CARPENTER PHINNEY

PANC is thrilled to welcome Olympic cyclist and gold medalist Connie Carpenter Phinney, co-founder of the Davis Phinney Foundation. Married to Olympic medalist Davis Phinney, who was diagnosed with Parkinson's in 2000 at the age of 40, she is a dedicated advocate and ally for PD care partners, is a prominent voice for education and connection on the disease, and has published articles on the subject in Psychology Today. Curiosity, creativity, and optimism are her superpowers.
