Overview

The institute includes lectures, discussion, and guided practice in role-plays. Active and practical in focus, the sessions emphasize hands-on skills training and real-life role-plays based on the kinds of conflicts faced by participants. A more detailed description of the sessions is available upon request.

In-Person Attendance

Three sessions of MSTI will be conducted in person in 2022: June 13-17 (Fort Mill, SC), August 1-5 (Chicago area), and November 14-18 (Phoenix area). Specific sites will be announced once arrangements with host churches have been finalized. At this time we do not plan to offer an online option for these locations; however, if safety concerns persist, we may add or switch any of these sessions to an online format. NOTE: We have just made arrangements to hold the November session of MSTI in person at the Franciscan Renewal Center in Scottsdale, AZ. The fee for this particular session is $1500, which includes lodging and all meals. Please check our website from time to time for updates and complete details.

Zoom Format

Two sessions of MSTI will be conducted exclusively online: March 14-18 and May 9-13. Participants will occasionally be divided into groups for the breakout activities, which include role plays. Thus, all participants will be expected to have a device with both a camera and a microphone in order to participate fully.

Tuition

Tuition is $750, except for the November session in Phoenix, which is $1500. Online registration is open until about one week before each workshop begins.

To register online go to <https://lmpeacecenter.org/all-events/>; otherwise, fill out the attached form and mail it to us with a check payable to LMPC, or make a credit card payment by calling our office (630-627-0507). Cancellations are subject to a $100 non-refundable fee if LMPC is given at least two weeks notice, or half of the registration fee after that.

Trainers

The Lombard Mennonite Peace Center is grounded in an Anabaptist peacebuilding model of conflict transformation, placed within the context of family systems theory. LMPC seeks to equip others to be ministers of reconciliation in their daily life and church communities. LMPC Executive Director, Rev. Jay Wittmeyer, brings to the institute many years of practical experience of mediating conflict in churches and organizations, while also training others to be self-differentiated leaders in the midst of congregational anxieties. Since 1983, LMPC has been leading the way in helping the church see conflict as an arena for God's revelation, while fulfilling the mission of helping Christ's church grow in health and wholeness.

Everyone Has to Deal with Conflict

Conflict is normal and inevitable – whether in the home, school, community, church or workplace. Leaders in all walks of life often have a responsibility to help others work through their conflicts.

The Mediation Skills Training Institute presented by the Lombard Mennonite Peace Center (LMPC) is designed to equip church leaders with the skills necessary to deal effectively with interpersonal, congregational, and other forms of group conflict. The five-day institute also includes a component on congregational mediation and consultation, placed within the context of family systems theory.

Although focused primarily on the church setting, the skills learned are directly transferable to other settings. Thus, managers in business, attorneys, experienced mediators, and others in leadership will be enriched by the training as well.

Who Will Benefit

- ♦ PASTORS and INTERIM PASTORS of all denominations — to enhance skills for managing conflict in the church.
- ♦ JUDICATORY LEADERS — Bishops; Conference Ministers; District Superintendents; Diocesan, Presbytery, Synod Staff – to assist pastors and congregations in handling conflicts.
- ♦ DENOMINATIONAL OFFICIALS and CHURCH CONSULTANTS — to bring healing in the midst of divisive church fights.
- ♦ LAY LEADERS and PASTOR-PARISH COMMITTEE MEMBERS — to receive valuable leadership training to benefit the church, while also gaining insight for peaceful conflict transformation in the home.
- ♦ ADMINISTRATORS — to introduce conflict transformation to the organizations they oversee.
- ♦ MANAGERS and SUPERVISORS — to help workers diminish conflict and enhance productivity.
- ♦ COLLEGE and SEMINARY STUDENTS — to gain hands-on skills training not typically offered in regular classes.
- ♦ ATTORNEYS — to gain skills in alternative dispute resolution procedures.
- ♦ COMMUNITY MEDIATION CENTER STAFF and VOLUNTEERS — to acquire additional skills in a transformational model of mediation for working with both individuals and groups.

“All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ, and has given us the ministry of reconciliation.” - 2 Corinthians 5:18
