COMMUNITY MEETING ROOM, MAIN LIBRARY
1703 ORRINGTON AVE
(847) 448-8600 EPL.ORG

Family friendly event to teach about food waste and its relationship to climate change.

Just Eat It is about a couple who challenges themselves to eat only discarded food in order to learn more about the problem of food waste in the United States.

The screening will be followed by a 30 minute optional Panel Discussion and Q+A around the topic of food waste at home, school, and the city level.

Speakers include:

Becky Brodsky is a Zero Waste Schools Consultant at Seven Generations Ahead and a Zero Waste Consultant for Collective Resource.

Bea Echeverria is Citizens' Greener Evanston 'Beyond Waste' program leader.
