

How to be an Antiracist in Evanston

Learn Session 2

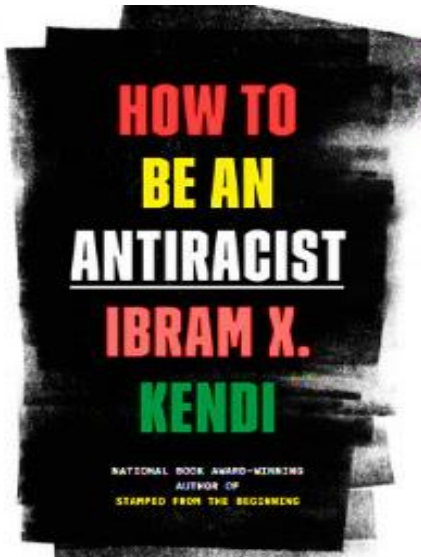

Tuesday, January 28

6:30 - 8:30 PM

Haven Middle School

(2417 Prairie Ave)

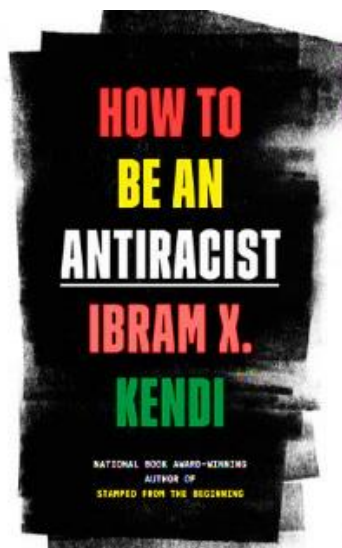

Free childcare and snacks for kids.

Join parents and caregivers from Kingsley and across Evanston to learn about the concepts in the book How to be an Antiracist by Dr. Ibram X. Kendi. You don't need to read the book to participate.

Save the Date for the next Haven Feeder Schools ACTION session on Feb. 20th.

For more info on Next Steps, visit: www.NextStepsEvanston.com

Next Steps presents

How to be an Anti-racist in Evanston

LEARN, ACT, & GROW together in an education & action series

based on

How to be an Antiracist
by Dr. Ibram X. Kendi

Learn what it means to be an antiracist with Dr. Diamond & Dr. Battalora
6:30 - 8:30 PM

October 17 Nichols January 28 Haven March 25 Chute

Act to create change with the larger Haven school community
by applying concepts from the “Learn” session

Nov 13 Orrington Feb 20 Lincolnwood March 31 Willard

Grow your capacity to effect change & dive into the book.
6:30 – 8:30 PM

Nov 5 Family Focus Jan 7 TBA March 3 TBA
Dec 3 Family Focus Feb 4 TBA

Spanish interpretation & child care provided, open to the community
Reading the book is not necessary for participation.

www.NextStepsEvanston.com

for information about sessions, book discussions, the mailing list, and much more

This series is made possible by partnerships with District 65 parent groups and PTAs and our sponsors