

New Mexico
Humanities
Council
Established 1972

A Presentation of the 2019 Corrales Historical Society Speaker Series, made possible by New Mexico Humanities Council, The National Endowment for the Humanities, and New Mexico Department of Cultural Affairs

www.CorralesHistory.org

AN ART FORM WITH A LONG & RICH HISTORY:
PUEBLO POTTERY

WITH
PAM LUJAN-HAUER

SUNDAY AFTERNOON

MAY 26

2:00 HISTORIC OLD
SAN YSIDRO CHURCH
966 OLD CHURCH ROAD • CORRALES

FREE
OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

PAM LUJAN-HAUER, a Taos Pueblo potter, learned pottery making from her great-aunts. She has won numerous awards for her art, which she will demonstrate as she tells the story of pottery, from the history of clay as an art form in its earliest origins to the threats to traditional pottery.