Werner Family

Reader: These candles are a sign of the coming light of Christ, who is called the Son of the Most High,

All: and of whose kingdom there will be no end.

Reader: With John the Baptist we testify to Christ the light, so that all might believe through him.

All: We wait as people who experience hardship and pain, yet we are called to witness to the persistent joy that sustains our life as God's people.

Reader: We light these candles as signs of our shocking hope, just peace, and fierce joy. May our lives shine with the fierce, tenacious joy of the Light who lives in our hearts as we wait and work for the coming of God's kingdom on earth as it is in heaven.

All: Amen.

Gospel Reading

John 1:6-8; 19-28 (CEB)

A man named John was sent from God. He came as a witness to testify concerning the light, so that through him everyone would believe in the light. He himself wasn't the light, but his mission was to testify concerning the light. This is John's testimony when the Jewish leaders in Jerusalem sent priests and Levites to ask him, "Who are you?" John confessed (he didn't deny but confessed), "I'm not the Christ." They asked him, "Then who are you? Are you Elijah?" John said, "I'm not." "Are you the prophet?" John answered, "No." They asked, "Who are you? We need to give an answer to those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?" John replied, "I am a voice crying out in the wilderness, Make the Lord's path straight, just as the prophet Isaiah said." Those sent by the Pharisees asked, "Why do you baptize if you aren't the Christ, nor Elijah, nor the prophet?" John answered, "I baptize with water. Someone greater stands among you, whom you don't recognize. He comes after me, but I'm not worthy to untie his sandal straps." This encounter took place across the Jordan in Bethany where John was baptizing.

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God.

All: Thanks be to God.

Choral Call to Prayer

Savior of the Nations, Come

led by Spencer Domer

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

All: Merciful God, how many John the Baptists, how many prophets of your light, have we ignored because they were not what we were looking for? How many times have we ignored voices crying in the wilderness, "Make straight the way of the Lord." How many times have we breathed a sigh of relief, and turned our backs on your messengers, because they did not speak the message we expected to hear? Help us hear anew the cry of those who would lead us to Christ. Tune our ears to your heralds, that we might also testify to your light. Amen

Words of Assurance

Leader: Beloved, hear this good news: God's love never fails, and is always at work to bring us back to God and one another.

All: In the name of Jesus Christ, we are forgiven! May God restore us to the joy of our common life now and always. Amen.
