

PRESENTERS JUNE 27-28, 2019

University where he focused on improving the lives of sexual minorities with a serious mental illness and enhancing individual's knowledge of multicultural competence. Dr. Zazzarino is actively presenting at local, state, and national conferences related to psychiatric rehabilitation methods, counseling services, and supervision practices. In addition to the professional education courses, Dr. Zazzarino is a suicide prevention trainer for the Society for the Prevention of Teen Suicide, facilitates group therapy for adolescents and adults at a partial hospital program and intensive outpatient program, provides outpatient counseling services at his private practice, and provides clinical supervision for counselors needing supervised clinical hours in New Jersey.

Anthony Zazzarino, PhD, LPC, ACS, CPRP is a full-time faculty member at Rutgers University in the Department of Psychiatric Rehabilitation and Counseling Professions where he currently provides instruction for professional education courses for New Jersey Supported Housing agencies implementing Community Support Services (CSS), the master's program in Rehabilitation Counseling, and the doctoral program in Counselor Education and Supervision. Dr. Zazzarino is a Licensed Professional Counselor (LPC), Approved Clinical Supervisor (ACS), and Certified Psychiatric Rehabilitation Practitioner (CPRP). Dr. Zazzarino completed his PhD in Counselor Education and Supervision at Walden providing support to students at risk of achieving their highest academic potential. Ms. Triumph has over a decade of experience providing adoption and permanency consultation services where she oversees and monitors reunification, adoption, and permanent legal custodianship processes. She is certified in various disciplines including but not limited to: Trauma Art Narrative Therapy, Dialectical Behavioral Therapy, Pennsylvania Home and School Visitor Certification and Cognitive Behavior Therapy. Ms. Triumph provides supervision and supportive consultation to individuals pursuing licensure as a clinical social worker. Simon James and Brian Robertson's "School of the Soul "and has completed online mentorship in mediumship and teaching with the gifted Tony Stockwell.

PRESENTERS - JUNE 29, 2018

Stacy Triumph, MSS, MLSP, HSV, LCSW, has extensive knowledge and expertise working with students and families to support students' behavioral and academic success. As a school social worker at Mastery Charter School-Gratz Campus, a turn-around school in the Philadelphia School District, she provides educational guidance by identifying suitable education solutions; recommending courses; monitoring student progress; engaging in case management duties; and

PRESENTERS - JUNE 29, 2018

Donna Wess, LPC, LCADC, CCS,

ACS is a Licensed Professional Counselor as well as a Licensed Clinical Alcohol and Drug Counselor. Donna is a graduate of Capella University with an MS in Mental Health Counseling.

Donna has a broad range of experience working in substance abuse and behavioral health for the past 17 years. The majority of her work has been focused on working with women with co-occurring disorders, particularly those with extensive trauma histories. She has assisted with developing programs to support pregnant, co-occurring women and has provided in-home therapy to children, adolescents, and their families.

Donna has volunteered as a Confidential Sexual Violence Advocate and was a Disaster Response Crisis Counselor in Ocean County.

Certified as a Clinical Supervisor she has had many years of experience supervising entry level clinicians and advanced licensed therapists within the substance abuse field as well as in behavioral health. Donna is currently the Program Manager in the Atlantic County Outpatient Department at The Center for Family Services.

Nicole Lynch, LCSW is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker who graduated from Stockton University in 2000 with a Bachelor of Science in Social Work and from Rutgers University in 2005 with a Master's in Social Work.

Nicole worked at The Arc of Atlantic County for 10 years as the Social Service Director. She worked at Family Service Association as the Children's Partial Care Manager and as an Outpatient Therapist. Nicole has worked as an In-Home Therapist and as a Disaster Case Manager after Super Storm Sandy.

Nicole is an Adjunct Professor of Social Work and Health Sciences at Stockton University. She also works part time as an Outpatient Therapist at Center for Family Services in Egg Harbor Township. Nicole also owns a private psychotherapy practice in Linwood.

PRESENTERS - JUNE 29, 2018

Keva White, LCADC, LSW

Mr. White a native New Yorker, born and raised in Brooklyn, New York. He attended the College at New Paltz where he received his Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration. Keva is credited for the infusion of statewide youth advocacy programs throughout the state of New Jersey during his 3-year tenure as youth coach for the Burlington Partnerships local system of care. Mr. White has over 20 years' experience working in urban communities developing and implementing evidenced based behavioral health services geared toward improving health outcomes for children and families. He has served as trainer and consultant for New Jersey's Alliance of Family Support Organizations, American Institute for Research and the Georgetown University Training Institutes. He is trained through the National Multicultural Institute and is a certified cultural competence trainer that is called upon nationally. Mr. White has taught on the graduate level at Morgan State University and Rutgers University School of Social Work. He currently serves as board co-chairman for New Jersey Social Workers Scholarship, Education & Research Corporation (NJ SWESR). Mr. White received his Master Degree in Social Work from Temple University and is a dually licensed social work professional. He is most recognized for his high-energy, creatively balanced, experiential and valued based presentation style. Mr. White enjoys music, reading, playing basketball and board games with family and friends. He is President and CEO of VIP Community Services, Inc., a training and consultant agency providing professional development services to profit and non-profit organizations.

PRESENTERS - JUNE 29, 2018

certified as an Approved Clinical Supervisor, Certified Clinical Supervisor, Masters Addiction Counselor, Substance Abuse Professional, as well as a Nationally Certified Counselor. He has a passion for working with families and their communities. He currently is a partner in a private practice in Verona, New Jersey providing supervision and marriage and family therapy.

JOEL M. LEVINE, MSW, LCSW, LPC, LCADC, LMFT has been a multi licensed therapist and educator therapist for over the last fifteen years, completing his Masters in Social Work at Fordham University with a Specialization in Substance Abuse and a two year post graduate training program in Family Therapy from the Multicultural Family Institute of Highland Park, New Jersey with Monica Mc Goldrick, LCSW and Nydia Garcia Preto, LCSW as well two years of post-graduate training with The Center for Family, Community and Social Justice. He is licensed as a: Family Therapist, Clinical Social Worker, Professional Counselor, and a Clinical Alcohol and Drug Counselor. In addition, he is a Clinical Fellow of the American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy, a member of the American Family Therapy Academy, Academy of Certified Social Workers and is

PRESENTERS - JUNE 29, 2018

Dr. Valerie Scott Ed.D. is a licensed psychologist, Approved Clinical Supervisor and Professor at the College of Saint Elizabeth where she administers the Master of Arts in Counseling Psychology and teaches in the masters and doctoral programs. She currently serves on the NJ Board of Psychological Examiners and maintains a small private practice specializing in training and supervision of counselors and psychologists in New Jersey.

Dr. Chloe Greenleaf Bland Ph.D. is the chair of the Psychology Department at the College of Saint Elizabeth in Morristown, NJ, USA. She earned her Research MA in psychology and her Ph.D. in the interdisciplinary concentration of Cognitive, Social, and Developmental Psychology at the New School for Social Research in 2011. She currently has two distinct programs of research. The first is the use of history to teach about the psychology of racism. The second research program is a cross-culture investigation of the social norms that govern caregiving in the US and in India. Her past research includes social-emotional learning in schools, factors that support first-year students, and the different social norms of reciprocity in NY, USA, and Gujarat, India. She consulted for the United Way of Northern NJ where she helped schools assess and improve their climate and culture. She remains on a speaker's board for the United Way where she gives workshops and lectures on racism and microaggression to schools around Morris County, NJ. In addition, Chloe is a co-founder of the research partnership between the former Atlantic Health Center for Population Sciences and the College of Saint Elizabeth, which helped to produce the new report on caregiving over the lifespan.