

United Women in Faith

United Women in Faith (UWF) (formerly United Methodist Women, UMW) is a faith-based membership organization of laywomen within The United Methodist Church. UWF is organized for mission, and members are committed to growing as disciples of Jesus Christ in community with other women and building the lives of women, children, and youth. United Women in Faith has been in mission for more than 140 years.

What is the PURPOSE?

The organized unit of United Women in Faith shall be a community of women whose purpose is to know God and to experience freedom as whole persons through Jesus Christ; to develop a creative, supportive fellowship; and to expand concepts of mission through participation in the global ministries of the church.

What is the Vision?

United Women in Faith is turning faith, hope and love into action on behalf of women, children and youth around the world.

Living the Vision

- To provide opportunities and resources to grow spiritually, become more deeply rooted in Christ and put faith into action.
- They are organized for growth, with flexible structures leading to effective witness and action.
- To equip women and girls around the world to be leaders in communities, agencies, workplaces, governments and churches.
- To work for justice through compassionate service and advocacy to change unfair policies and systems.
- To provide educational experiences that lead to personal change in order to transform the world.
