Locations TBD. In one of the largest events of the year, DECPR staff ride together on the van, visiting various neighborhood events and passing out information and giveaways.

Guidelines:

- Remember that the times listed MAY include time for gathering supplies, loading the van, driving to event, loading, setting up, breaking down, returning to DEC, etc., as needed for the particular event. As such, they may be different than the listed times for the public for the event.
- Remember that you may sign up for other part of the shift, and not the entire shift. Please let Karen know if that is the case, so others can be found to fill in. You will be paid for the time that you work.

- Check with your supervisor before letting Karen know that you are signing up to work. This is required, even if it is your day off.
- Check your email for additional, detailed information on each event as it approaches.
- Let Karen know BEFORE the day of the event if you have questions or concerns.
