

Mackesha Browne, emergency communications officer

Mackesha comes to DEC from Allianz Partners in Richmond, where she was a bankcard associate. Born in the Carribean, she loves music and playing games with her four children.

Chloe Campbell, emergency communications officer

Previously a collections agent in Richmond, Chloe has a twin sister. Her favorite color is pink, and her favorite hobby is shopping.

Yane’a Godley, emergency communications officer

Yane’a previously served in the Army Reserve and has re-enlisted in the Army National Guard. She enjoys cooking and learning new things. A prior sheriff’s deputy, she is looking forward to starting her career as an emergency communications officer.

Vincentia “Vinnie” Isaacs, emergency communications officer

Coming to DEC from Richmond’s 311, Vinnie is married with three children. She enjoys cooking and spending time with her family.

Tamilya Isom, emergency communications officer

Previously a Starbucks manager in Richmond, Tamilya has a bachelor’s degree in criminal justice. She is the oldest of seven sisters and loves to read and binge-watch crime shows.

Shelli Topaz, emergency communications officer

Shelli comes to DEC from Henrico County’s Tuckahoe Library, where she was a library associate. She has citizenship in three countries and is excited to start her new journey.

Tyler Wilson, emergency communications officer

Tyler comes to DEC from his hometown of Charlottesville, where he was a guest services agent. He enjoys hanging with friends and family, working out and anything sports related. He is excited to display his hard work and passion for helping others at DEC.

Tonya Witcher, emergency communications officer

Previously a treatment officer with the Department of Corrections for 17 years, Tonya is a grandmother. Her hobbies are cooking and traveling, and she loves DIY projects.

