

If you know who this is, email your answer to Karen.gill@richmondgov.com.
Please put “I know my August coworker” in the subject line, and email it by Aug. 17 to enter the random prize drawing of all correct entries.
Thank you!

Most embarrassing moment? My first attempt at pronouncing a citizen name after being released from service channel (10 letters 6 vowels).

Celebrity encounters? Rode to Elizabeth City University with Skillz to watch his cousin perform for the first time (Flex).

Best experience at work? Watching several of my coworkers retire.

Favorite place to visit? My living room.

Best advice you've been given or have given? Do not be afraid of the radio.

One thing you are most proud of? Seeing people I trained or who worked under me aspire to larger roles.

Craziest thing you ever saw or experienced? A male called the DEC because his dogs were stuck together, and he cursed them because they were brother and sister.

Of all DEC staff, I probably am the only one who has asked everyone for $20.

Something you dislike that everyone else seems to like? Today's hip hop.

Something you like that everyone else seems to dislike? Beyonce's acting.