

Supervisor of the year

2018

ACOS Kenya Washington

Ms. Washington is bright, articulate, and hard working. Her enthusiasm and passion for the job comes through in all she does. She has a positive attitude that makes her a pleasure to work with.

In October 2016, Ms. Washington was promoted to the rank of Assistant Communications Officer Supervisor (ACOS), and has continued to excel in many areas. In April 2018, she served as the acting training supervisor for the 28th Basic Dispatch Academy during the absence of COS Chantae Layne. Kenya has demonstrated superior analytical and diplomatic capabilities during her tenure as a supervisor, and remains eager to assist in all areas throughout the department. In 2018 she conducted twelve (12) background investigations and was instrumental in the efficient processing of numerous complaints. She was promoted to the rank of Communications Officer Supervisor (COS) in April 2018, and briefly served as the acting Operations Manager in October 2018 and December 2018.

In addition, Ms. Washington had a key role in the 2019 shift rebid process, and continues to serve as treasurer on the Pride Committee as well as helping to organize, implement, and actively participate in the National Telecommunicator Week celebrations.

Believe in yourself and the value of your work and you will be unstoppable.
