

Communications Officer Xavier Laster

Communications Officer Xavier Laster is being nominated for Communications Officer of the month for his professionalism, dedication and dependability to our department's success. CO Laster has been employed by the Department since September 21, 2015.

CO Laster is most known for this deep and booming voice that's heard on the telephones and radios. One thing that's impressive and not well known is that CO Laster has been one of the top performers for B Platoon since June 2018. CO Laster makes a conscious effort to meet or exceed the Department's goals and provide reliable customer service in an efficient manner.

CO Laster was approached with the task of training CO Lashonda Byrd on the police radios. He did not waiver when called upon but happily accepted the task promising to provide his trainee with the invaluable wealth of knowledge he has. This is an example of his dedication to the needs of the Department, and shows how much of an effective team member, and invaluable asset that he really is.

CO Laster recently became a member of the Department of Emergency Communications Incident

Director Stephen Willoughby presents the CO of the Month certificate to CO Xavier Laster on Dec. 20.

Dispatch Team. He expressed interest in becoming more active within the Department, trying to learn different roles and responsibilities. CO Laster has also expressed interest in becoming a Teletype operator.

Overall, CO Laster is an employee that has continued to have a positive attitude and takes on each new responsibility with confidence. He is a team player, always striving to be his very best, and setting a great example for his peers to follow.

Honorable mention for November goes to CO Brittany Weirup-Washington