

If you know who this is, email your answer to Karen.gill@richmondgov.com.

Please put “I know my February coworker” in the subject line, and email it by Feb. 17, to enter the random prize drawing of all correct entries.

Thank you!

Favorite book/movie/TV show? “The Count of Monte Cristo.”

Favorite musician? Kenny G (Why Kelz! ...Why!!!!!!)

Best advice you've been given or have given? Never forget where you came from, but don't let where you come from stop you from getting to where you want to go. (A personal quote of mine)

Best experience at work? I love it when Keith calls from the Box outside of Headquarters and asks if I need anything from the store or when he says he just wanted to check on us. (He thinks we work out of the HQ building.)

One thing you are most proud of? Taking the huge leap of faith and leaving my family behind and starting my own successful journey. It hasn't been easy, but years of hard work and determination have been rewarding in so many ways.

Fun fact about yourself? I once had two rows of bottom teeth.

Favorite saying? “Ain’t but two boys in town ... and I’m both of ’em.”

Something you dislike that everyone else seems to like? Cats and scary movies

Something you like that everyone else seems to dislike? Country music

Anything else that you would like to share to help your coworkers get to know you?

My favorite cartoon character is Taz followed by Pepe LePew.

I should be a singer in another life.

Did I mention that I hate cats? Just making sure.
