

Introducing new employees

May 2020

Michelle Wilder, senior administrative technician

An employee of the City of Richmond for 25 years, Michelle has worked in the Department of Finance as a payroll analyst for the past 10 years. She was the 2018 Rise Award Winner for Exceptional Customer Service awarded by Mayor Stoney. She has a true passion for inspiring and uplifting women through accessorizing with Paparazzi jewelry.

Theresa Brevard, human resources generalist

An employee of the City of Richmond who is assigned to the DEC, Theresa has worked as an HR generalist since beginning her career eight years ago. She enjoys the variety in her day-to-day work, helping employers and employees meet organizational and professional goals, and building relationships with staff throughout an organization. She looks forward to working with DEC's staff.
