

Isabella L. Benu, emergency communications officer

Coming from Amazon in a HR capacity, Isabella is a published author on the best-seller list at Amazon. She loves movies, TV, comics, science fiction and fantasy, and she is the youngest member of her family.

James Crosby, emergency communications officer

James comes to DEC after spending 15 years in the retail management sector. He enjoys spending time outdoors.

Alexis Paxson-Morgan, emergency communications officer

Previously an assistant customer service manager for Food Lion, Alexis is working on a career as a homicide detective and spends her free time reading and writing.

She believes that communications will be a good fit for her, and she is eager to begin learning.

Keshia Vaughn, emergency communications officer

Keshia joins DEC after 20 years in health care, most recently with Vibra Hospital and Chippenham Hospital. Born and raised in New York, she attended college in upstate New York. She enjoys traveling, cooking and music.

