

From the New Council President

It is with considerable humility that I undertake my role as St. Andrew's council president. We are currently living in an unprecedented time for our church, our community, our nation, and our world, and I am both nervous and hopeful about God's plans for all of us.

I want to thank our past president, Doug Hale, for the countless hours of service and guidance given to our congregation. Due to family commitments, Doug resigned as council president earlier this month. I am also thankful for Kelly Feasel, our past vice-president, for his dedication and encouragement. We will forever be grateful to both Doug and Kelly for their extraordinary work and many contributions.

As a congregation, we have many important decisions and questions to face in the coming months. Together with God's assistance, the leadership and service of our pastors and my fellow council members, and the strength of our congregation, I am certain we will answer those and continue to live out our mission - In Christ, We Worship, Love, Grow, Serve, and Send.

For I know the plans I have for you," declares the Lord, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future. Jeremiah 29:11

I am sincerely grateful for this opportunity to serve St. Andrew, and I hope you will continue to pray with me for our church, pastors, staff, and congregation as we navigate through these challenging times.
