Summer Highlights

West District 4-H Archery Tournament – Congratulations to the Backwoods Broadheads for their accomplishments on August 10th in Polk County! First Place Jr. Team: Myah Owen, Corey Rackley, Collin Owen; Third Place Jr. Team: Keith Fuller, Kaeden Galloway, McKenna and Carlie Baker

The First Place Overall was Myah Owen and Third Place Overall was Collin Owen. Myah also won First individual in recurve and Second Overall!!

Special thanks/recognition to Coach Jessi Owen for her leadership in the local and district 4-H Archery Program.

Sewing Classes – Two sets of sewing classes were held this summer. The first, led by Maryann Mickewicz, was for advanced beginners Hannah Megown, Lexie Bailey, and Adonai Jacques who made tote bags with pockets. The second beginner class made decorative pillow cases, insulated pads, and “comfy cozy blankies” for children to use during times of stress. The instructor for this class was Renay Knapp; participants were Summer Glover, Gracie Shields, and Zia, Kaya, & Keeley Brown.

Food Preservation—Renay Knapp taught the art of canning and drying to Elodie Malo, Tori Brown, Ellery Zink, Avery Sweet, and Cavan Walker.

Fishing Day – Connestee Fishing Club hosted a 4-H Fishing Day on August 20th for twelve 4-H'ers ages 5 to 17. It was a beautiful, cool clear day for fishing that all enjoyed whether they caught a fish or not. We even saw an eagle fishing. Check out the pictures for our catches...

Livestock School and Haywood County Fair – Although the main goal is to show at the Mountain State Fair, Little River 4-H Club members Zion Brown, Baylor Blythe, and Kaya Brown attended the Stamey Livestock School at the Ag Center and entered the Haywood Fair in August.

4-H Congress – This annual event held at NC State University started with the state presentation contests on July 19th. Congratulations to Tori Brown who won FIRST/GOLD in Science & Technology for ages 11-13 and to Bri Boyd & Avonta Jones for SECOND/SILVER in 11-13 Foods & Nutrition! Cjon Conley represented Transylvania County in the teen leadership track that included workshops and election of state officers.

NCACC Conference – Josh Kupras served as Transylvania County's youth delegate to the Youth Voice summit sponsored by the NC Association of County Commissioners as part of their annual conference. Josh reported learning about his personality/leadership style and how county government works – saying it was an overall “amazing experience”.
