

Which step will you take along the giving path of your TIME?

Extravagant Giver

Who am I inviting to be part of church life through my witness?

Faithful Giver

How am I regularly giving of my time to God in prayer and study?

Growing Giver

What am I doing so that my worship participation connects to my weekday actions?

Intentional Connection

Who will I build relationship with at the church to encourage me to intentionally attend?

Once a Month

How will you commit to attending church once a month?

Consider these steps on the path:

Identify where you are on the journey to generosity of time?

How has God's generosity been revealed to you in this step?

What do you need to reprioritize, in order to make time for the next step?

What is your prayer to trust God in this journey?

Keep track of your commitment of time to worship, study and prayer in a journal. You will be amazed at God's transformation of you over time!

PRAYER

Giving God,
Every moment of every day is a gift from you. Grant me the wisdom to honor you in my words, thoughts, and actions. Let my weekly worship be a joyful celebration of your goodness, leading me into deeper discipleship and faithful witness each day.

My time is yours, O Lord. Help me to dedicate it to your purposes, releasing anything that distracts me from loving and serving you. May each moment become an opportunity to grow closer to you and to share your love with others. Amen.

I prayerfully commit my time to regular worship, prayer, and the study of God's Word. I will intentionally order my schedule and priorities to make room for this commitment. Trusting in God's grace, I believe the Holy Spirit will use this commitment to deepen my faith and transform my life as a disciple of Jesus Christ.

MY 2027 COMMITMENT OF TIME IS:
