

CASECOACH

.COM

Case Coach is the leading platform for case interview preparation. Brown University students can access the Interview Prep Course for free! If you are preparing for consulting interviews we highly suggest you use this resource.

Top consulting firms hire less than 1% of all applicants. Learn about the selection process and interview format by participating in this course.

The course includes 26 video lectures covering 12 key skills and 16 sample interview videos.

The course provides everything you need to prepare for consulting applications and interviews - from cases to interview examples!

More details available on the CareerLAB website.