

ALICEA DAVIS

SPOKEN WORD POET • AUTHOR • ARTIST

ALICEA DAVIS is an inspirational spoken word poet, author and artist. Davis is the founder of the “March Forth” racial reconciliation movement. Her work also contributes to personal inner healing that fuels hope in positive change and to those suffering from mental pain.

FOUNDER OF THE NATIONAL MARCH FORTH HOLIDAY

PEOPLEMAVEN'S LIST OF FANTASTIC SPEAKERS

FOUNDER OF THE MARCH FORTH MOVEMENT

1 OF 9 WOMEN MAKING BLACK HISTORY

BLACK GIRLS ALLOWED

WHAT OTHERS ARE SAYING ABOUT ALICEA...

“Alicea Davis is the most awe-inspiring speaker I’ve ever encountered! Her spoken word poetry will thrill, enlighten, inspire, and challenge you beyond belief!”

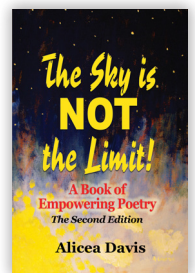

- Shannon Ethridge, M. A. million-copy best-selling author and international speaker

“Alicea’s presentation at our bi-monthly New American Lyceum, a forum of intellectual and artistic performances, moved the entire audience to earnest reflection and sturdy discussion, while regaling us with a delightfully entertaining presentation. Mrs. Davis is a notable presence and platform phenomenon that is both awesome and irresistible. We were all profoundly moved by her deeply meaningful content and amazing style.”

- Dr. Jay Harold Ellens, Michigan Center for Early Christian Studies

“Alicea Davis not only speaks hope to those who are filled with despair; she challenges readers to believe in the unlimited potential that dwells inside each of us. With poems that increase self-awareness and self-esteem, Davis takes us to new heights by reaching beyond merely existing, to stepping outside our comfort zones and enriching our relationships.”

- Christina Dixon, Founder of Priority One Publications, Detroit, MI

@ Alicea Davis

@ AliceaJoyDavis

@ AliceaJoyDavis

@ AliceaJoyDavis

Contact: bookings@aliceadavis.com

1. 877. 9. POETRY | www.AliceaDavis.com | P.O. Box 430184, Pontiac, MI 43434