Evolution of the Masonic Apron in America, 1740 to the Present

Patrick Craddock

Thursday May 16, 2019

7:00pm in the ballroom at

Fort Worth Masonic Temple

(1100 Henderson St., Fort Worth, TX 76102)

$20 for Dinner and Program

All Masons, their families and friends are invited.

Noted expert on Masonic aprons and regalia, author and historian, Worshipful Brother Patrick Craddock, Past Master of Conlegium Ritus Austeri No. 779 in Nashville, TN, will address the Brethren on the subject of the Masonic apron and how it has changed over the last 250 years. The presentation features many images of historic American aprons and afterward Brother Craddock will be pleased to answer any questions.

Brother Craddock is the owner of The Craftsman's Apron, manufacturer and provider of the highest quality Masonic regalia available today.
