Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty God, the fountain of all wisdom, you know our necessities before we ask and our ignorance in asking: Have compassion on our weakness, and mercifully give us those things which for our unworthiness we dare not, and for our blindness we cannot ask; through the worthiness of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Collect of the Kids & Invitation to Children's Chapel & Godly Play

Children ages 4 to 5th grade are invited to the steps for a brief introduction to the day's liturgy or lessons. They then depart for Godly Play, returning for the Eucharist.

The First Lesson

Genesis 18:1-10a

Lector A reading from the Book of Genesis.

The Lord appeared to Abraham by the oaks of Mamre, as he sat at the entrance of his tent in the heat of the day. He looked up and saw three men standing near him. When he saw them, he ran from the tent entrance to meet them, and bowed down to the ground. He said, "My lord, if I find favor with you, do not pass by your servant. Let a little water be brought, and wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree. Let me bring a little bread, that you may refresh yourselves, and after that you may pass on-- since you have come to your servant." So they said, "Do as you have said." And Abraham hastened into the tent to Sarah, and said, "Make ready quickly three measures of choice flour, knead it, and make cakes." Abraham ran to the herd, and took a calf, tender and good, and gave it to the servant, who hastened to prepare it. Then he took curds and milk and the calf that he had prepared, and set it before them; and he stood by them under the tree while they ate.

They said to him, "Where is your wife Sarah?" And he said, "There, in the tent." Then one said, "I will surely return to you in due season, and your wife Sarah shall have a son."

Lector The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The Response

Psalm 15

Domine, quis habitabit?

Robert Knox Kennedy
(b. 1945)

- 1 LORD, who may dwell in your tabernacle? *
who may abide upon your holy hill?
- 2 Whoever leads a blameless life and does what is right, *
who speaks the truth from his heart.
- 3 There is no guile upon his tongue;
he does no evil to his friend; *
he does not heap contempt upon his neighbor.
- 4 In his sight the wicked is rejected, *
but he honors those who fear the LORD.
- 5 He has sworn to do no wrong *
and does not take back his word.
- 6 He does not give his money in hope of gain, *
nor does he take a bribe against the innocent.
- †7 Whoever does these things *
shall never be overthrown.

The Second Lesson

Colossians 1:15-28

Lector A reading from the letter to the Colossians.

Christ Jesus is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation; for in him all things in heaven and on earth were created, things visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or powers--all things have been created through him and for him. He himself is before all things, and in him all things hold together. He is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that he might come to have first place in everything. For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, and through him God was pleased to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, by making peace through the blood of his cross.

And you who were once estranged and hostile in mind, doing evil deeds, he has now reconciled in his fleshly body through death, so as to present you holy and blameless and irreproachable before him—provided that you continue securely established and steadfast in the faith, without shifting from the hope promised by the gospel that you heard, which has been proclaimed to every creature under heaven. I, Paul, became a servant of this gospel.

I am now rejoicing in my sufferings for your sake, and in my flesh I am completing what is lacking in Christ's afflictions for the sake of his body, that is, the church. I became its servant according to God's commission that was given to me for you, to make the word of God fully known, the mystery that has been hidden throughout the ages and generations but has now been revealed to his saints. To them God chose to make known how great among the Gentiles are the riches of the glory of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory. It is he whom we proclaim, warning everyone and teaching everyone in all wisdom, so that we may present everyone mature in Christ.

Lector The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

And in reply the Lord said to her, "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and disturbed about many things, But there is need of one thing: for Mary has chosen the good portion, which shall not be taken away from her."

Mission Trip Commissioning

Celebrant In Christ Jesus, we are all baptized into one body and given gifts for a variety of ministries to serve the common good. We gather to send them in mission as God's people and as ambassadors of Christ on behalf of The Church of the Good Shepherd.

Candidates We will.

Celebrant Let us pray.

The almighty and merciful Lord, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, bless you and keep you this day and this week. Amen.

Collecting Back-to-School Backpacks for Episcopal Farmworker Ministry

Again this year we are collecting back-to-school school supplies to benefit approximately 350 children served by Episcopal Farmworker Ministry. Our goal this year is to collect 80 backpacks!

Here's how it works:

1. pick a grade level (or as many grade levels as you want);
2. buy a backpack for each grade level selected; fill the backpack(s) with supplies corresponding to the grade level you select [for a list of grade appropriate supplies, please see the Parish Newsletter or pick up a hardcopy list in the Parish Life Center foyer];
3. label your backpack(s) with the appropriate grade level;
4. return your filled backpack(s) to the Parish Life Center by Sunday, July 27th.

All donated backpacks will be blessed on the 27th at the 10:15 worship service and then picked up by Episcopal Farmworker Ministry the week of July 28th. Thank you in advance for your generous support!

Morning Prayer in August

Ever wondered how the Church prays when it's not Sunday? Join us this August as we revive the ancient rhythm of Morning Prayer—scripture, psalms, and quiet reflection offered to God at the start of the day.

Our diocesan intern, Brett, will be leading Morning Prayer at 8:30 AM in the chapel, Monday through Thursday, August 4–7 and August 11–14. All are welcome to come and pray. No experience needed.

Interested in learning more? Brett will also offer two Sunday morning classes at 9 AM

- August 3rd, exploring the history of the daily office and its roots in the Rule of St. Benedict
- August 10th, a hands-on training for anyone interested in learning to officiate Morning Prayer.

Whether you're new to daily prayer or returning after many years, this is a great opportunity to deepen your spiritual life and discover one of the treasures of our Anglican heritage. Contact: Brett MacDonald (brett.macdonald@cgs-raleigh.org)

Bible Amnesty – August 3rd and 10th

This summer, Good Shepherd's Newcomers Committee is offering a new series called Bible Amnesty. We have invited a select panel of our resident Bible scholars to answer all the questions about Holy Scripture that you've always been too afraid to ask. Bible Amnesty will be held in the Ennis Suite at 11:30 AM on August 3rd and August 10th. This event is designed for newcomers but all are welcome to attend.

If you would like to submit a question in advance, place a card in the question box located in the hallway leading into the sanctuary. These cards can be signed or submitted anonymously. You can also email questions to Rev. Justin (justin.gabbard@cgs-raleigh.org). Stupid questions are not only permitted, they're encouraged!

Do You Know a Child Who Loves to Sing?

The Church of the Good Shepherd is launching a chorister program this fall for children in grades K-12. Be on the lookout for more information about this wonderful opportunity to praise God through music!
