

Louisiana Chamber of Commerce Day at the Capitol a Success.

More than 60 representatives of chambers of commerce joined LABI at the Capitol to meet with legislative leaders and statewide elected officials. These Louisiana chambers of commerce represent thousands of companies and entrepreneurs that have joined together to promote jobs, economic growth, and strong communities in every region of the state.

Wednesday, this group of community leaders took part in the annual Louisiana Chamber of Commerce Day at the Capitol. Attendees gained insight into the legislative process and had an opportunity to interact with their state legislators. Each attendee also had the opportunity to hear from all three gubernatorial candidates in conjunction with Oil and Gas Day at the Capitol.
