

Misconduct in Congregations Workshop

August 12-14, 2019

Misconduct might express itself in terms of sexuality or finances or emotional abuse. Whether from a church member, lay leader, or rostered person, misconduct impacts larger systems and can raise opportunities to seek wholeness.

This 2 ½ day workshop includes healing worship, presentations, case studies, and the sharing of experiences.

WHERE

St. Stephen Lutheran Church, ELCA
3725 Kent Road, Stow, Ohio

COST

$350 (includes workshop and full 6-meal plan)

Travel and lodging are not included.

NEOS has secured a block at the Courtyard by Marriott, Stow for $89/night.

Call 330-945-9722 and use Reference Code "ATG."

Register at <https://conta.cc/2JLvJoE>

(registration closes July 29, 2019)

WORKSHOP PRESENTERS

Barbara Keller, Therapist and ELCA Consultant for the Prevention of Misconduct

Beth Marie Halvorsen, Intentional Interim Pastor and NALIP faculty member

Marcus Lohrmann, Interim Pastor, Memorial Lutheran Church, Toledo, OH;
former Interim Bishop, Florida-Bahamas Synod (2017);
retired after 18 years as Bishop of the Northwestern Ohio Synod

Sponsored by: Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA); National Association of Lutheran Interim Pastors (NALIP); Northeastern Ohio Synod, ELCA (NEOS)