NEWS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

American Subcontractors Association of Central Pennsylvania and Pennsylvania Builders Exchange Volunteers Help Habitat for Humanity of Greater Harrisburg

Two not-for-profit trade associations in the area have joined together to help our local community. The American Subcontractors Association of Central Pennsylvania (ASACP) and the Pennsylvania Builders Exchange (PBX) joined forces to create a program called Perfect Partners. Together they host various local activities and events that relate to the commercial construction industry. Members from both associations united to support their first Volunteer Day for Habitat for Humanity of the Greater Harrisburg Area on Friday, July 28, 2017.

Volunteers from ASACP member companies included:

1. Rick Handyside, Best Wash, Inc.
2. Glenn Miller, Poole Anderson
3. John Dixon, Poole Anderson
4. Marianne Pilcher, Poole Anderson
5. Amy Harling, Valley Supply
6. Katie Sauder, Trout, Ebersole & Groff
7. Tiffany Bender, Trout, Ebersole & Groff
8. Dwayne Weaver, Hershocks, Inc.
9. Cindy Weaver, Hershocks, Inc.
10. John Alexander, Pennsylvania Builders Exchange (PBX)
11. Loni Warholic, American Subcontractors Association of Central PA

Volunteers worked at a rehabbed home in Steelton, installing floor joists in the kitchen, building a temporary safety rail on the attic staircase, finishing window frames, cleaning up the site and more. ASA of Central PA and PBX made sure their members were taken care of by providing lunch and a lot of water for the crew. Crew Leader Bill Pierce of Habitat for Humanity and Mike Goldthwait of Americorps provided direction to the volunteers.

According to Loni Warholic, Executive Director for ASA of Central PA and John Alexander, Director of Membership Services for the Pennsylvania Builders Exchange, "We thought that Habitat for Humanity's needs and our members' skills and abilities would be a great fit for both organizations. We'll definitely be doing another volunteer day again."
