Our credit union has enjoyed a long standing relationship with ISI. Over the years, we have formed a great business relationship as well as personal friendships. ISI has always been there to answer questions or solve any issues we had. They have gone out of their way several times to support us in situations where they probably did not have to. I feel we are given personal service that we might not get with a larger provider. I can literally reach the CEO of ISI with a phone call should it ever be necessary. John MacCurdy and his team have done a great job for us over the years and now Taylor MacCurdy brings new energy and enthusiasm to the company. They are very knowledgeable and provide us with great service and support. I would certainly recommend ISI for any credit union seeking a CPI partner.
