

The background of the poster is a rustic wooden surface, possibly a table or cutting board, surrounded by fresh produce. In the top left, there are red bell peppers and green leafy vegetables. A single orange carrot is positioned near the top left corner. In the top right, there is a small wooden bowl containing white powder, likely salt or sugar, with some herbs. On the right side, there are green herbs and a piece of bread. In the bottom left, there are several red tomatoes. In the bottom right, there is a head of green lettuce. The overall theme is fresh, local food.
