

Want to be a software developer?

Learn to code with Coding 101: Programming Fundamentals

FREE 9 week pilot course - Basic English, Math, and Computer Proficiency required

Emily Griffith
Technical College
1205 Osage Street

What you'll learn?

Core, universal programming concepts with a focus on problem-solving with the Python programming language.

Course Topics and Skills:

- Statements and variables
- Data types and typecasting
- Mathematical and comparison operators
- Data structures: lists and dictionaries
- Code style best practices
- Flow control: conditionals and loops
- Creating and using functions
- Scope
- Introduction to objects and classes

Presented by:  devetry

The pilot course will be instructed by a skilled senior software developer from this Denver based software development company.

Course Details

- Jan. 22 - Mar. 19 (9 weeks)
- Mondays & Thursdays, 6-8:30pm
- 20 hours a week of coursework (including classroom time)
- Located at Emily Griffith Technical College - 1205 Osage

Contact Us Today:

720-423-8972

trades@emilygriffith.edu

Sign Up Now:

<http://coding101.devetry.com/register>