

ART SMART SUMMER

The Children's Art School invites young artists to a summer of creative discoveries in six weeklong classes from June 26 through July 24 with three hour morning and afternoon sessions at 2290 South Clayton Street in the University Park neighborhood. Art Smart classes master skills and challenge creative thinking including: Clay Fantasy Castles, the Sketching Trip and Printing Press Surprises. For more information, visit www.artcreates.org.