

St. Paul's Episcopal Church
Port Townsend, Washington

The Twenty-First Sunday after Pentecost The Feast of All Saints

November 2, 2025
10:30 am

Welcome!

Whoever you are and wherever you find yourself on life's journey, please enter and receive God's blessing.

If you are unfamiliar with worship in the Episcopal tradition, simply relax and let the congregation help carry you in worship.

God's peace be with you this day and always.

Prayers of the People: Form 1 (Adapted)

Deacon: With all our heart and with all our mind, let us pray to the Lord, saying "Lord, have mercy."

Leader: For the peace from above, for the loving-kindness of God, and for the salvation of our souls, let us pray to the Lord.

People: Lord, have mercy.

Leader: For the peace of the world, for the welfare of the Holy Church of God, and for the unity of all peoples, let us pray to the Lord.

People: Lord, have mercy.

Leader: For Sean, our Presiding Bishop; Phil, our Bishop; and Lynne, our Priest-in-Charge, and for all of the ministries and people of St. Paul's, let us pray to the Lord.

People: Lord, have mercy.

Leader: For our Donald, our President; for Bob, our Governor; for David, our Mayor; and for all in positions of public trust, let us pray to the Lord.

People: Lord, have mercy.

Leader: For this city, for every city and community, and for those who live in them, let us pray to the Lord.

People: Lord, have mercy.

Leader: For seasonable weather, and for an abundance of the fruits of the earth, let us pray to the Lord.

People: Lord, have mercy.

Leader: For the good earth which God has given us, and for the wisdom and will to conserve it, let us pray to the Lord.

People: Lord, have mercy.

Leader: For those suffering in body, mind, or spirit, let us pray to the Lord.

People: Lord, have mercy.

Leader: For the poor and the oppressed, for the unemployed and the destitute, for prisoners and captives, and for all who remember and care for them, let us pray to the Lord.

People: Lord, have mercy.

Leader: For all who have died in the hope of the resurrection, and for all the departed, let us pray to the Lord.

People: Lord, have mercy.

Leader: For deliverance from all danger, violence, oppression, and degradation, let us pray to the Lord.

People: Lord, have mercy.

Leader: That we may end our lives in faith and hope, without suffering and without reproach, let us pray to the Lord.

People: Lord, have mercy.

Leader: In the communion of St. Paul, and of all the saints, let us commend ourselves, and one another, and all our life, to Christ our God.

People: To you, O Lord, our God.

Presider: Almighty God, by your Holy Spirit, you have made us one with your saints in heaven and on earth: Grant that in our earthly pilgrimage we may always be supported by this fellowship of love and prayer, and know ourselves to be surrounded by their witness to your power and mercy. We ask this for the sake of Jesus Christ, in whom all our intercessions are acceptable through the Spirit, and who lives and reigns for ever and ever. Amen.

The Lord be with you. And al - so with you.
Presider	People
Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.
Presider
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People
It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Presider: It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. For in the multitude of your saints you have surrounded us with a great cloud of witnesses, that we might rejoice in their fellowship, and run with endurance the race that is set before us; and, together with them, receive the crown of glory that never fades away. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow'r and might, — heav'n and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Bless - ed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord. —

Sharing the Feast

All are welcome to come to receive communion at Christ's table.

Notes about receiving Communion: The usher will direct you forward. The cup will be offered. If you do not wish to receive wine, cross your arms across your chest and the words "The blood of Christ, the cup of salvation" will be offered while the cup is held in front of you. If you would not like to receive bread or wine, but would like a blessing, cross your arms across your chest when in front of the priest. Please do not dip bread into the wine.
