

The 4th installment of...

Music IN THE COURTYARD

Saturday,
Oct. 23rd
@ 3PM

*Classical Guitarist,
Eric J. Roth

will perform music by a variety of composers from the eighteenth century to the present day, including a set of three character pieces by Carl Philipp Emanuel Bach (1714-1788), son of Johann Sebastian Bach. Eric will also perform some of his own compositions.

Due to the fact that the meteorologists are predicting that it won't get above 52 degrees on Saturday, this concert will be held in the Annex and masks will be required. Sadly, classical guitars are too delicate to expose to such cold air. Next week we will be back outside, regardless of temperature, for a Halloween Hootenanny with the Beckers.
