

THERE ARE A FEW DIFFERENT WAYS YOU CAN BECOME A PART OF SOUTHEAST MISSOURI REALTORS® (SMR).

Primary REALTOR® Membership

Your Primary Association collects your National Association of REALTORS® and Missouri REALTORS® dues. As a primary member of SMR, you have the opportunity to serve on committees, vote on Association matters, attend events, etc. To join Southeast Missouri REALTORS®, you must meet the following requirements:

- You must have an active Missouri real estate license and be sponsored by a broker who is a member of Southeast Missouri REALTORS®; or
- Have an active Missouri broker or appraisal license
- Submit an application for membership (see applications below), and pay the application fee and applicable membership dues
- Complete New Member Orientation within sixty (60) days of submitting your application (Not applicable to appraisers)
- Complete the online Code of Ethics Training within sixty (60) days of submitting your application. (Not applicable to appraisers)

Secondary REALTOR® Membership

You may join Southeast Missouri REALTORS® as a secondary member. You would pay local dues to SMR, and have all the privileges that a primary member of SMR has. To join as a secondary member, you must meet the following requirements:

- Have a primary membership with another local Association, National Association of REALTORS®, and Missouri REALTORS®
- Submit a letter of good standing from your primary Association with your membership application
- Be sponsored by a broker who is a member
- Pay the application fee and local dues
- Attend New Member Orientation within sixty (60) days of submitting your application

Are you a prospective Affiliate member interested in connecting with more than 450 members?

Southeast Missouri REALTORS® Affiliate members are experts in all areas of the real estate industry and are committed to strong ethical practices, have high professional standards and provide quality customer satisfaction.

As an affiliate of Southeast Missouri REALTORS®, your benefits include:

- Networking opportunities in local advocacy efforts, membership and educational events as well as community involvement projects.
- Access to our news publications.
- A link to your company website on Southeast Missouri REALTORS® website.
- Inclusion in exclusive membership communications, including exclusive SMR Facebook group.
- Access to Southeast Missouri REALTORS® membership roster.
- Brochure space in the Technology Center at Southeast Missouri REALTORS® office.
- Opportunities for extra exposure through participation in our Affiliate Sponsorship Program.