Just like the Hebrew prayer L'dor v'dor (from generation to generation) from Door to Door follows the journey of Bessie, Mary and Deborah through sixty five years of family history in a funny, touching story of strength, loss and love.

Acclaimed director/producer Shari Upbin brings from Door to Door to Clearwater for one performance after successful runs in Boca Raton. Ms. Upbin, who has decades of experience on and off Broadway, as well as in regional theatre, describes playwright James Sherman's characters as "three women who stand as links in a chain made of faith, love and understanding."

Upbin directs a cast of veteran actors who produce eloquent performances as they explore changing mores, religious attitudes, and their very own human frustrations. The dignity of these women that shines forth through adversity is brilliant and inspiring.

"Hilarious and deeply moving" New York Daily News

"Sherman's women are Jews, but their trials and trails are universal" Pittsburgh Post Gazette
