

SCHOLAR-IN-RESIDENCE

November 11—November 13

Rabbi Kenneth Bromberg Z”L Education Fund

Rabbi Albert Slomovitz, Scholar in Residence

Albert Isaac Slomovitz earned a Ph.D. from Loyola University of Chicago in ethnic history. He was the Senior Chaplain at the Naval Air Station, Pensacola, Florida. Rabbi Slomovitz retired from the Navy and is the Founding Rabbi of Congregation Gesher L'Torah in Alpharetta, GA., and a Professor of American History at Kennesaw State University. He is the author of two books, “The Fighting Rabbis: Jewish Military Chaplains and American History” and “America’s Other Clan: The United States Supreme Court”.

Shabbaton Schedule

- ◆ Friday, November 11th, Kabbalat Shabbat
Service from 6:00pm to 7:00pm, followed by dinner and presentation on history of prejudice regarding people of color, the Black Lives Matter group and their anti-Israel stance.
- ◆ Shabbat, November 12th—Discussion on the largely unknown and underappreciated history of Jewish service in the armed force with Q&A after Kiddush lunch.
- ◆ Shabbat Mincha @ 4:30pm, followed by Se’udat shlishit, a light meal, sponsored by CBS. Rabbi Slomovitz will discuss a book he is working on about the Book of Matthew. The evening will end with Havdalah at 6:15pm.
- ◆ Sunday, November 13th, a discussion with Religious School students and adults about Jews in the military, followed by brunch. Includes a hands on project to put together care packages to send to US service men and women.

DINNER Friday Night

November 11th

$20/adult

(Brisket or vegetarian option available)

$10/child (ages 13 & under)

(Chicken fingers & tater tots)

RSVP by Nov 4th

and

Se’udat Shlishit (light dinner)

Saturday Night

November 12th

Compliments of CBS

RSVP by Nov 4th