

Aronberg Goldgehn Davis & Garmisa

We are seeking current 1L and 2Ls to apply for compensated summer associate positions at our firm. Our program lasts eight (8) weeks. As a participant in our summer program, you will have an opportunity to be exposed to all aspects of our firm's transactional, intellectual property, and litigation practice areas. Our firm is a full service business and commercial litigation firm, representing clients ranging from large institutional companies, such as banks and other financial institutions, insurance companies, manufacturers, developers, and major professional service corporations, to mid-sized and smaller entrepreneurial businesses, sole proprietorships, individuals, and families.

The ideal candidate would have an interest in commercial and/or litigation matters and have an interest in learning day-to-day practical applications of law (including litigation and counseling for clients). Further, the candidate would understand civil litigation procedures and be responsible for researching and drafting memoranda of law, preparing complaints/responsive pleadings in both state and federal courts. We seek a candidate who has strong writing and analytical skills as well as the ability to self-motivate and take on complex projects.

Diversity and inclusion are key values at the firm. To that end, the firm strives to attract and retain a highly talented workforce where people of diverse backgrounds can prosper. The firm is an equal opportunity employer and endeavors to build balanced teams from all walks of life without regard to race, color, ethnicity, religion, national origin, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender expression or gender identity, disability, veteran status, or any other status protected under federal, state, and/or local law.
