Call to Worship – Emily Phillips

One: God calls us away from the tumult of the world where everything seems disposable and in a constant state of flux, that we may focus our thoughts on things that are lasting.

One: This is the season of Lent, a season to remember the sufferings of Jesus Christ.

Many: A season to remember that to follow Christ is to take up our crosses and to be servants of all.

One: A season to remember Jesus’ question “Are you able to drink the cup that I drink?”

Many: A season to ask ourselves how we, like Peter, are afraid and turn away.

One: A season to ask ourselves what we, like the woman with the fine ointment, have to offer.

Many: A season to give sacrificially to others through the One-Great-Hour-of-Sharing offering.

One: A season to watch and wait with Christ, that we may have courage in the hour of testing.

Many: A season to proclaim with Mary Magdalene and the rest of the disciples that Christ is not dead but alive!<sup>1</sup>

Many: Even when the way goes through Death Valley, you walk by our side and we are not afraid.

One: Your trusty shepherd’s crook makes me feel secure.

Many: You serve a six-course dinner in the midst of my enemies. You revive our drooping heads; our cups brim over with blessing.

Invitation to the Lord’s Table

Call to Confession

Unison Prayer of Confession – God of truth, how difficult it is for us to be truthful before you. We want to hide our anxieties and fears, our resentments and self-centeredness. Cut through our evasions by the truth of your word and help us to be authentic in our lives and in our faith. God of mercy, your hopes for us are greater than our own, yet our failures do not surprise you. Forgive us, we pray, even for the sin we cannot see or find it in ourselves to confess. God of love, accept us as we are, so that we may learn to accept ourselves. Teach us to affirm what is good in our lives, and to put behind us what is unworthy, that by your grace we may live with confidence and joy, in the manner of Jesus our Christ. Amen.<sup>1</sup>
