Cover Art: Broken Vessel

"As I drew layer after layer, I had to sit in brokenness with the psalmist and experience the repetitive painful sting of the vivid imagery the psalmist provides. Once I reached the outer layer, I decided to add breaks in the mandala that start on the very outside with light bursts of yellow and orange and reach through the traumatic imagery to a thin yellow circle that holds the psalmist in the middle. The yellow light also completes the outside of the mandala and holds all of the imagery. I wanted the light to be subtle to create space for the imagery to breathe, and for these breaks to represent God's light holding the psalmist through it all. What resulted is an overall flower shape that I wasn't expecting. I think the lesson in all of this is that if we allow ourselves to grieve before God, to really open ourselves up to the difficult inner work that takes, then that's where true and profound growth happens. The overall imagery is almost entirely transformed by God's light breaking."

Lauren is an artist, graphic designer, and theologian. She studied Media Design at Middle Tennessee State University, worked as a wetlands advocate in Southern Louisiana, and attended Columbia Theological Seminary to piece together her passions for artistic expression, design, and Creation Care.

While in seminary, Lauren found a passion for seeking after God and processing scripture through visual exploration. The visual arts offered her a holy space to ask questions, take risks, and make bold statements. Her paint brush, acrylic paints, sharpies, and colored pencils became mediums for liberation, helping set her voice free. Once she began this journey in visual self expression, she became determined to create spaces where others could find this freedom and find their own voice, whether it be in the act of creating, in liturgical arts, or in visual meditative practices like Visio Divina.

While at Columbia, she also realized her background in graphic design was a great asset in ministry. In the midst of the Church's struggle for relevancy in a rapidly changing world, she saw the need for faith communities, ministries and non-profits to share their story and mission more effectively and fully through visual means.

She is Founding Creative Partner & Branding Director for A Sanctified Art LLC, a collaborative arts ministry providing multimedia resources for worshipping communities. She also helps faith communities and non-profits share their vibrant stories through branding & design services.

A Reflection from Deacon Chitra

I never knew I would be serving as a licensed deacon at Trinity when I first landed on the pews exactly a year ago! I always knew an instant family awaiting in the church nearby overseas, but that couldn't be more apt at Trinity than anywhere else! More than in the altar, I love my ministry in the pews. If I could say anything that I contributed to Trinity, that is by making friends who emotionally supported me while mutually enriched by my friendship. I have focused on ensuring emotional wellness of the members who shared their concerns and difficulties with me.

I loved preaching but I am afraid that my extempore skills are running dry as I have imitated 'that kinda episcopalian' strictly sticking to the script! I remember most of the conversations I had with congregation members on the sermons that I preached, which ended up mostly like stand-up comedies!!

Trinity gave me much more than I gave to Trinity - Staff meetings on Mondays, Pancakes on Shrove Tuesday, Passion journey in the chapel on Good Friday, Emma @ 10 am service, food and fun @ coffee hour, reading through Archives files, Holy Spokes rides with Rich and Rob in Summer, Advent/Christmas singing with Robert and the choir, volunteering at Northern Illinois Food Bank with Brenda and Ruthanne, laughter and conversations post wednesday mass ... and all that made me laugh and cry - Trinity is a sacred place where I meet my inner self!

Live Streaming: We stream worship each Sunday at 10:00 am via the Trinity Wheaton facebook page.

Egg Hunt for Charity

Last year's Egg hunt for Charity was such a success, we'd like to do it again!

The children hunted for plastic eggs containing a coupon for a dollar amount. They then would deposit that "coupon" in the jar for the charity of their choice. It was a lot of fun and raised $750 for 3 charities. CFF is working on a specific date for this year's Egg Hunt for Charity around Easter or Palm Sunday. Stay tuned.

Pancake Supper & Ash Wednesday

Shrove Tuesday Pancake Supper - Feb. 21 at 5:30 pm

History of Pancake Day, or Shrove Tuesday: Shrove Tuesday is the traditional feast day before the start of Lent on Ash Wednesday. Lent – the 40 days leading up to Easter – was traditionally a time of fasting and on Shrove Tuesday, Anglo-Saxon Christians went to confession and were “shriven” (absolved from their sins). A bell would be rung to call people to confession. This came to be called the “Pancake Bell” and is still rung today in some parishes.

Shrove Tuesday always falls 47 days before Easter Sunday, so the date varies from year to year; and historically was the last opportunity to use up eggs and fats before embarking on the Lenten fast and pancakes are the perfect way of using up these ingredients. Did you know that the ingredients for pancakes can be seen to symbolize four points of significance at this time of year: Eggs ~ Creation; Flour ~ The staff of life; Salt ~ Wholesomeness; and Milk ~ Purity

The First Reading

Isaiah 58: 1-9a

Shout out, do not hold back! Lift up your voice like a trumpet! Announce to my people their rebellion, to the house of Jacob their sins. Yet day after day they seek me and delight to know my ways, as if they were a nation that practiced righteousness and did not forsake the ordinance of their God; they ask of me righteous judgments, they delight to draw near to God. "Why do we fast, but you do not see? Why humble ourselves, but you do not notice?" Look, you serve your own interest on your fast day, and oppress all your workers. Look, you fast only to quarrel and to fight and to strike with a wicked fist. Such fasting as you do today will not make your voice heard on high. Is such the fast that I choose, a day to humble oneself?

Is it to bow down the head like a bulrush, and to lie in sackcloth and ashes? Will you call this a fast, a day acceptable to the Lord? Is not this the fast that I choose: to loose the bonds of injustice, to undo the thongs of the yoke, to let the oppressed go free, and to break every yoke? Is it not to share your bread with the hungry, and bring the homeless poor into your house; when you see the naked, to cover them, and not to hide yourself from your own kin? Then your light shall break forth like the dawn, and your healing shall spring up quickly; your vindicator shall go before you, the glory of the Lord shall be your rear guard. Then you shall call, and the Lord will answer; you shall cry for help, and he will say, Here I am.

Lector                      The word of the Lord.

People                      Thanks be to God.

Psalm 112: 1-9

*breath

- 1 Hallelujah! Happy are they who fear the Lord *
and have great delight in his commandments!
- 2 Their descendants will be mighty in the land; *
the generation of the upright will be blessed.
- 3 Wealth and riches will be in their house, *
and their righteousness will last for ever.
- 4 Light shines in the darkness for the upright; *
the righteous are merciful and full of compassion.
- 5 It is good for them to be generous in lending *
and to manage their affairs with justice.
- 6 For they will never be shaken; *
the righteous will be kept in everlasting remembrance.
- 7 They will not be afraid of any evil rumors; * their heart is right;
they put their trust in the Lord.
- 8 Their heart is established and will not shrink, *
until they see their desire upon their enemies.
- 9 They have given freely to the poor, * and their righteousness stands fast for ever;
they will hold up their head with honor.

The Second Reading

1 Corinthians 2: 1-12

When I came to you, brothers and sisters, I did not come proclaiming the mystery of God to you in lofty words or wisdom. For I decided to know nothing among you except Jesus Christ, and him crucified. And I came to you in weakness and in fear and in much trembling. My speech and my proclamation were not with plausible words of wisdom, but with a demonstration of the Spirit and of power, so that your faith might rest not on human wisdom but on the power of God.

Yet among the mature we do speak wisdom, though it is not a wisdom of this age or of the rulers of this age, who are doomed to perish. But we speak God's wisdom, secret and hidden, which God decreed before the ages for our glory. None of the rulers of this age understood this; for if they had, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. But, as it is written, "What no eye has seen, nor ear heard, nor the human heart conceived, what God has prepared for those who love him"— these things God has revealed to us through the Spirit; for the Spirit searches everything, even the depths of God. For what human being knows what is truly human except the human spirit that is within? So also no one comprehends what is truly God's except the Spirit of God. Now we have received not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit that is from God, so that we may understand the gifts bestowed on us by God.

Lector                      The Word of the Lord.

People                      Thanks be to God.

Hymn 440+ (10am only)

Blessed Jesus, At Thy Word

Holy Gospel

Matthew 5: 13-20

Deacon                      The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People                      Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, "You are the salt of the earth; but if salt has lost its taste, how can its saltiness be restored? It is no longer good for anything, but is thrown out and trampled under foot. "You are the light of the world. A city built on a hill cannot be hid. No one after lighting a lamp puts it under the bushel basket, but on the lampstand, and it gives light to all in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven.

"Do not think that I have come to abolish the law or the prophets; I have come not to abolish but to fulfill. For truly I tell you, until heaven and earth pass away, not one letter, not one stroke of a letter, will pass from the law until all is accomplished. Therefore, whoever breaks one of the least of these commandments, and teaches others to do the same, will be called least in the kingdom of heaven; but whoever does them and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven."

Deacon                      The Gospel of the Lord.

People                      Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Sermon

Rev. Brenda Lotesta

followed by brief period of silence

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Introducing Guitar for Vets

We are excited to announce a new ministry beginning this spring at Trinity. A new, local chapter from the national charity organization, Guitar For Vets is partnering with the Midwest Shelter for Homeless Vets here in Wheaton. Guitars for Vets is a 501(c)3 charity that believes in putting "The Healing Power of Music in the Hands of Heroes". G4V offers a musical wellness program to veterans, especially those battling PTSD. G4V provides 10 weeks of guitar lessons, and instruments, to the veterans within the MSHV. Musical instruction is free, as are the guitars the veterans are awarded after completing our program. These lessons will be taught by G4V instructors here at Trinity. Donations will go to the purchase of these guitars and their accessories. Donations of gently used acoustic & electric guitars are accepted and a receipt from G4V will be provided.
