

People who Qualify to Receive COVID-19 Vaccine in Florida

Qualified per Executive Order 21-67—Effective Monday, March 22, 2021.

Long-term care residents or staff.

People age 50 & older.

People determined by their physicians to be extremely vulnerable to COVID-19.*

* All individuals authorized by law to administer COVID-19 vaccinations may vaccinate persons determined by a physician to be extremely vulnerable to COVID-19. Such physician determinations shall include a statement that the patient meets the defined eligibility criteria established by the Florida Department of Health's COVID-19 Determination of Extreme Vulnerability form. Point smartphone camera at the code for the form.

Health care personnel with direct patient contact.

PERSONNEL INCLUDE BUT ARE NOT LIMITED TO:

- Emergency medical service personnel
- Nurses & nursing assistants
- Home health providers
- Physicians
- Technicians
- Therapists
- Dentists
- Dental hygienists & assistants
- Phlebotomists
- Pharmacists
- Students & trainees
- Contractual staff
- Dietary & food services staff
- Environmental services staff
- Administrative staff

Visit MyVaccine.FL.gov for more information or to pre-register for vaccine at state-supported sites in your area.

Florida
HEALTH