Watch Party for Governor Sisolak's 1st State of the State Address

Wednesday, January 16, 2019

5:30 PM

241 West Charleston Boulevard, Suite 150

702-202-3573

Please join Nevada Action for School Options, the Charter School Association of Nevada, and the Nevada Council of Independent and Religious Schools in downtown Las Vegas on Wednesday evening, January 16 for a Watch Party for Governor Sisolak's first State of the State Address. A discussion about what the speech, the Governor-Elect's education outlook, and the upcoming legislative session mean for the most important priorities for Nevada's schools of choice and the families who select them will follow.

Light Fare, Refreshments, and Engaging Conversation will be provided. The speech is scheduled to begin at 6pm. RSVP or any questions to: events@NevadaAction.org or 702-202-3573.

The Watch Party will be at Nevada Action for School Options' office, 241 West Charleston Boulevard, Suite 150, behind Lola's Restaurant. Enter the parking lot from the Eastbound side of Charleston, then cross in the drive in front of Lola's and park in any unreserved spot. Any entrance to the building works fine, our office is toward the back.

Thank you, and we hope we see you then.
