

GROWING STRONG READERS

What does it take to read successfully in high school and college, and what should parents be doing now?

Join us for a PARENT WORKSHOP

Tuesday, April 30th · 7:00 to 8:30 PM

Boys & Girls Club · 4 Horseneck Lane · Greenwich

Wednesday, May 1st · 10:00 to 11:30 AM

Julian Curtiss School · 180 East Elm Street · Greenwich

Joan Kelley, PUP Reading founder and former educator and Harvard Graduate School of Education Language & Literacy researcher, will talk about:

- the three types of skills children need to read well,
- why books and other texts become more challenging for students in middle and high school years,
- how parents and grandparents can support reading skill growth - in easy and accessible ways - from birth through grade three.

Please contact Deelia Wadsworth (dwadsworth@bgcg.org) at the Boys & Girls Club if you would like to have translation services provided on April 30.

Sponsored by the Greenwich Alliance for Education, in coordination with the Greenwich PTA Council and the Boys & Girls Club of Greenwich.
