

The League of Women Voters of Greenwich
Together with Greenwich Library
Invite you to the latest in our free Community Speakers Series

Knowing the Signs: Programs and Practices to Prevent Gun Violence

A discussion with Nicole Hockley
Co-founder and Managing Director of Sandy Hook Promise
&
Lucy Arecco, Bella House Administrator, Greenwich High School
&
Greenwich High School Students

Moderated by
Kay Maxwell, former president of LWVCT and LWVUS

Join us for an informative conversation with Nicole Hockley, a national leader on gun violence prevention whose son Dylan was killed in the shooting at Sandy Hook Elementary, and Lucy Arecco, GHS Bella House Administrator. Sandy Hook Promise has trained over 6.5 million youth and adults, including over 2,000 students in Greenwich, on how to identify warning signs and intervene to prevent gun violence.

Tuesday, May 21, 2019

Greenwich Library, Cole Auditorium • 101 W Putnam Ave. Greenwich CT

Refreshments at 6:30pm • Presentation and Q & A from 7:00-8:30pm
Space is limited. RSVP requested by May 19, 2019 via email: EventsLWVG@gmail.com