

Josh Etemadi

AVP, Construction Bonds, Inc. a division of Murray

Joshua Etemadi has been with Construction Bonds, Inc. a division of Murray since 2007. Joshua was an integral part of receiving Construction Bonds' first ever Surety Bond Producer of the Year Award by the U.S. Small Business Administration in 2011. As Assistant Vice President, Joshua oversees sales and support staff to exceed production goals. Joshua has testified to U.S. Congress based on his knowledge and expertise on surety bonding for small and emerging contractors. He is actively involved with the National Association of Surety Bond Producers, The United Way Regional Council of Loudoun County, VA and also serves on the United Way National Capital Area Board of Directors. Joshua holds a Bachelor's Degree in Business Management from George Mason University School of Business.