

Tamara E. Murray

Marketing Specialist, *U.S. Small Business Administration

Tamara E. Murray is the Underwriting & Marketing Specialist for the U.S. Small Business Administration's Surety Bond Guarantee Program in Denver, Colorado. Tamara joined SBA in 2007 and is responsible for marketing and outreach to the surety and small business community for an 18-state territory. Tamara works closely with bond agents and surety companies who provide over $6billion in bond guarantees to small businesses annually. Ms. Murray began her career in the surety industry in 1990 as the bond manager for a small independent bonding agency in Fort Worth, Texas and continued her surety career in Denver, Colorado as a contract bond underwriter for a small regional surety before joining the federal government. Ms. Murray received her Bachelor's in Marketing from Colorado State University in 2018. Her marketing efforts on behalf of SBA's Surety Bond Guarantee Program resulted in the publication of a professional article in the December 2014 issue of The Risk Management Association Journal entitled "Minimizing Contractor Defaults: SBA Surety Bond Guarantee Can Open Door to Bonding".