

M Catharine Powers

Area Office Director, OSG

M. Catharine Powers is the Supervisory Surety Bond Guarantee Specialist for the Office of Surety Guarantees (OSG) at the US Small Business Administration (SBA) where she manages a staff of professionals at the organization's regional office in Seattle, WA. Catharine joined OSG in 2010 and is responsible for the Marketing and Underwriting for the Area Office. In addition to the operations and personnel management, Catharine works with Surety Companies and Bond Agents handling the Western States including Alaska, Hawaii and Guam. After graduation from Pepperdine University, Malibu, Catharine began her career in the surety industry. She has worked for both standard market surety companies as well as specialty. She has also worked for professional surety bond agencies in both the State of California and Washington. Catharine has over 25 years experience in the surety bond industry.