

Welcome to the 507th District Court
Court Policies and Procedures — Effective October 30, 2018

1. The docket call each day is at 9 a.m. (but see item 8 below).
2. The court will hear uncontested matters between 8:00 a.m. and 8:45 a.m. each day or at any other time if we are not in trial and you are willing to wait. If you would like to prove up an uncontested matter at any other time, you should contact the coordinator to make sure that a judge will be available. Your case will be heard as an uncontested matter only if you have filed all documents listed as Required Orders and Forms for Entry of Final Decree/Order.
3. Trials are set on Mondays.
4. Hearings for temporary orders and ancillary matters (for example, withdrawals and substitutions of counsel) are set on Tuesdays and Thursdays. Temporary orders may be limited to one hour per party. A request for temporary orders in a modification case or for additional temporary orders should be supported by an affidavit and approved by a judge.
5. Enforcement actions are set on Wednesdays. For child support enforcement cases, please bring a payment history from the Texas Office of the Attorney General. If the moving party is requesting incarceration, the moving party should bring a proposed commitment order to the hearing. Commitment orders must be entered by 2 p.m. on the date of incarceration.
6. CPS hearings are set on Wednesdays, except for emergencies.
7. Entries of orders are set on Fridays. If you call to inform the court that your order has been filed, please make sure that all documents listed as Required Orders and Forms for Entry of Final Decree/Order have also been filed, otherwise your case may be dismissed on the date of the entry hearing.
8. Discovery disputes are set on Fridays at 1:30 p.m.
9. Mediation is required before the final trial of a case; exceptions may be made in certain cases. Parties seeking such an exception should file a motion seeking such relief and set a hearing on the issue at least 10 days before trial. Failure to mediate prior to trial may result in dismissal of the case.
10. Mediation is required before temporary orders involving conservatorship disputes or complex property issues; exceptions may be made in certain cases. If a party is being denied possession of the party's child, the court may waive the mediation requirement. Failure to mediate may not be used as an excuse to avoid a temporary orders hearing.
11. A sworn inventory must be on file on or before prove up of a default divorce.
12. An agreement incident to divorce must be approved by the court (unless the AID is binding under another rule of law) and must either be filed with the clerk or read into the record at the time the case is proved up. Parties may file a motion requesting that the AID be made confidential along with a proposed order.

13. When based on a mediated settlement agreement, the terms of a final order must comport with the mediated settlement agreement.
14. A pre-trial conference is required for all jury trials and will generally be scheduled on the Friday seventeen days before trial. Prior to the pre-trial conference, the parties to a jury trial should file the Pretrial Conference Checklist.
15. A pre-trial conference is required in each adoption case. This provides an opportunity to confirm that necessary documents have been filed; the final trial of the case will be set at the pre-trial conference.
16. Late calls: attorneys who will be late for docket call should call the clerk at least 10 minutes prior to docket call and state their expected time of arrival, reason for delay, and any other court(s) where they are appearing. Cases may be dismissed or reset if the attorney for the moving party does not arrive in the courtroom within thirty minutes of the time of docket call.
17. Parties making a non-ex parte off-docket approach may (1) sign up on the uncontested docket and will be heard at the end of the uncontested docket or (2) make an appointment to approach.
18. In cases regarding children, use each child's entire name. Do not use initials to identify children.
19. Ex parte temporary restraining orders should be joint and mutual, although exceptions may be made if supported by affidavit. In divorce actions, ex parte TROs should use the language included in section 6.501 of the Texas Family Code. In SAPCR cases, the court will strike certain proposed injunctions (such as alcohol or paramour injunctions) if they are not supported by an affidavit. A TRO on a counterpetition must contain a certificate of conference. Alternatively, a counterpetitioner should notice the other side of a hearing for temporary orders instead of having a represented party served with a TRO.
20. If a party is requesting that a parent's possession be supervised, the requesting party should be prepared to pay the costs associated with providing the proposed supervisor.
21. An attorney ad litem will be appointed to represent a party served by publication, although exceptions may be made in cases with no children and no property. Parties seeking such an exception should approach the judge or associate judge. An ad litem will not be waived in cases involving children. In each such case, the ad litem's affidavit of due diligence must be on file prior to finalization of the case.
22. The court may appoint an amicus attorney in a case in which conservatorship or possession of or access to a child is in dispute.
23. Parties to a custody dispute must complete an 8-hour parenting class prior to trial.
24. Cell phones and other electronic devices should be in silent mode or turned off in the courtroom. Non-attorneys should have such devices stored out of sight. No food should be brought into the courtroom. No gum chewing please. No photos or videos are allowed, except in adoption cases. While in trial, parties and attorneys may have water or beverages at the counsel table.
25. Children may not be brought into the courtroom without the consent of the court. A child being adopted will be invited into the courtroom at the appropriate time. If the court approves a request for a judge to interview a child in chambers, bring the child to the courthouse at the time set for the interview.

26. Exceptions to these rules may be made on a case-by-case basis. Suggested changes to these rules are welcome. If there is something you think we should do differently, please let us know.

These policies and procedures do not supplant the Harris County Local Rules.
